THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

October 23d, 1752. [NUMB. 958.]

LONDON, June 6.

THE king of Denmark's marriage, with the princeſs Julia Maria, youngeſt ſiſter to the reigning duke of Brunſwick-Wolfenbuttel, is reſolved on. —This king, to eſtabliſh a trade for his ſubjects in the Levant, has reſolved to propoſe a treaty of commerce to the Ottoman Emperor.

An epidemical diſtemper has lately broke out at Vernberg in the Upper Palatinate; which greatly reſembles the plague.

The eldeſt Son of the dey of Tunis has revolted againſt his father, and holds him beſieged in the caſtle of Barde; to which he forced him to fly, after defeating a body of 5 or 6000 of his troops.

London, June 18. The preſent king of Denmark, who is ſoon to be married to the Princeſs Juliana Maria of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttle, was twenty nine years of age on the 31ſt of march laſt, and the Princeſs was twenty-two on the 4th of laſt September. She is the youngeſt daughter of Charles late Duke of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttle and Beveren, the princes of of which houſe are deſcended from Erneſt Duke of Lunenburgh and Zell, who died anno 1546. The branch of Wolfenbuttle from Henry his eldeſt ſon; and the illuſtrious branch of Lunenburgh or Hanover, our preſent royal family, from William the youngeſt ſon. Brunſwick Wolfenbuttle was divided into three branches, 1. Brunſwick, extinct in 1704. 2. Wolfenbuttle extinct in 1705. 3. Beveren, to which branch the territories of the other two are devolved.

By a letter from Shetland we are informed, that the fiſhery this ſeaſon, is likely to be attended with very great ſucceſs.

Some private letters from the Hague aſſure us, that ſomething of great conſequence will break out next month in the ſouthern parts of Europe, which may poſſibly have an effect upon the numberleſs negociations elſewhere.

July 11. Letters from Breſt adviſe, that they are working with great diligence upon the new works of that port; ſome of them are entirely finiſhed, but the baſon will not be ſo for ſome years, the tide ſo often interrupts that work.

Diſcord ſo much prevails among the members of the privy council of her royal highneſs the princeſs governante of the ſtadtholder of the united provinces and among the ſtates of moſt of the provinces, that there is no foreſeeing what will be the conſequence. A great perſonage who was very much employed under the preceeding government, has found the means of getting into the cabinet of the preſent, and therein aſſumes ſuch an aſcendency, as either to raiſe jealouſy in, or give umbrage to, his co-members. He is of a family which loves ſuperiority, and none likes it better than himſelf but this quality is very diſagreeable to thoſe, who think they have, and who really have, done the moſt important ſervices. There is too much diſcontent in moſt of the provinces, in reſpect to the incorporation of ſeveral battalions into regiments, and on account of the ſtate of war this year, which exceeds ſome of the years when the ſtates actually were in war, inſomuch that ſome of them it's ſaid, have reſolved to refuſe their conſent to it, and conſequently, to pay their contingent to the treaſury of the generality. The ſcheme for reſtoring and improving commerce goes on ſo ſlowly and ill, that it will, probably, diſcourage people from attempting projects of this nature, ſeeing they cannot be brought to bear.

AS the Violence of the Inundation, by the late hurricane, burst open the doors of the surveyor-general's office, whereby all the original warrants of survey, the plats surveyed by virtue of them, the books in which they were recorded, &c. were in four or five feet of salt water, and are at present in a perishing condition, and some bundles swept away by the torrent which ran thro' the said office, notwithstanding the utmost care was then taking to save them, and ever since to render them useful by the subscriber; who thinks himself obliged to give this notice thereof, that persons injured thereby, may apply to have their plats of lands already granted, recorded again if needful: And such persons who have returned plats into the office, and have not received them for grants (of which there are many hundreds) if they do not apply for them while they are legible, they must have another survey, or a duplicate from the deputy surveyors who surveyed them. Among other things swept away by the said flood, were two manuscript-books in folio, stitched in cartridge-paper, one marked Quit-Rents, consisting of two parts, both mark'd alphabetically on the margin and in columns, the first part with a black, the second with a red alphabet; the former contained a list of the grantees names on the page marked with the initial letter of their surname, the date of the warrant, the survey, what county, what quit rent, and when granted; the latter part in like manner distinguished, being for the grantees in townships, whose quit-rent commences Ten years after the date: The other book contains, a successive list of the dates and names of such who have had warrants of survey from the honourable the lieutenant governor, and his present excellency the governor, and the same alphabetically digested in columns, containing the owner's name, date, and quantity of the warrant, quantity surveyed, by whom, where, and when, the date of the return, when and to whom delivered, the book and folio where recorded, and when granted, from April 1743 to September 1752. If said books or either of them are returned into the said office, whole and legible, the person returning them shall have FIFTY POUNDS for each, from GEORGE HUNTER, Surveyor-General of his majesty's lands, Inspector and Comptroller of his majesty's quit-rents.

THE plantation on Charles-Town neck about a quarter of a mile from the said town, belonging formerly to William Smith deceased, and for some years rented by Mr. Wm. Greenland, containing about 240 acres of land, so well known as to need no recommendation, to be sold. Inquire of Messrs. Thomas Flare, or Frederic Grimke, in Charles-Town, or of Col. John Smith at Stono.

MRS. Dymond gives this public notice, that having removed to the house lately possessed by Mr. Joseph Creighton, (barber) on the Bay, she has to let convenient dry stores and a good cellar: a fine billard-table to sell; and the best lodgings and entertainment for gentlemen with good usage.

NATHANIEL McALEXANDER, hath informed me that two stray'd horses, have broke into his corn field at Hickory Hill near Abley Ferry: One of them a bay, branded on the mounting shoulder 14, upon the off buttock a diamond and flower de-luce: The other a black horse, with a blaze on his face and three white feet, branded upon the mounting shoulder JD in one. Whoever owns the said horses may have them again, on proving their property before Alexander Edwards, J. P.

STRAYED into Mr. Joseph Fogartie's field at Stono, a large bay horse, 14 hands high, branded on the mounting shoulder and thigh IG, has a sore saddle wrath, and some white spots on his off thigh, and a blaze in his forehead, and is a pacer. Whoever owns said horse may have him again, proving his property before me, and paying the lawful charges. John Goodwin.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by PETER TIMOTHY, at the new Printing-Office, in Tradd-Street.

FOUND on Cuthbee causeway the 27th of September last, by a negro fellow belonging to the subscriber, a pair of pistols, brass mounted, in red cloth bags. The owner paying the charge of this advertisement, and rewarding the fellow may have them again of

HENRY MIDDLETON.

Stolen out of the stall Middleton's pasture, the 14th day of September last, a small black horse about 13 hands high, 7 or 8 years old, branded on the mounting buttock F, having one or both hind feet white and a star in his forehead. Whoever will give such intelligence of the said horse, that he may be had again, shall receive a reward of Five Pounds currency.

A STRAY'D black horse about 13 hands high, branded P on the near buttock. Any person claiming the said horse may apply to Peter Lance.

AS the Violence of the Inundation, by the late hurricane, burst open the doors of the surveyor-general's office, whereby all the original warrants of survey, the plats surveyed by virtue of them, the books in which they were recorded, &c. were in four or five feet of salt water, and are at present in a perishing condition, and some bundles tweed away by the torrent which ran thro' the said office, notwithstanding the utmost care was then taking to save them, and ever since to render them useful by the subscriber; who thinks himself obliged to give this notice thereof, that persons injured thereby, may apply to have their plats of lands already granted, recorded again in due time. And such persons who have returned plats into the office, and have not removed them for grants (of which there are many hundreds) if they do not apply for them while they are legible, they must have another survey, or a duplicate from the deputy surveyors who surveyed them. Among other things swept away by the said flood, were two manuscript-books in folio, stitched in cartridge-paper, one marked Plat-Book, consisting of two parts, both mark'd alphabetically on the margin and in columns, the first part with a black, the second with a red alphabet; the former contained a list of the grantees names on the page marked with the initial letter of their surname, the date of the warrant, the survey, what county, what quit rent, and when granted; the latter part in like manner distinguished, being for the grantees in townships, whose quit-rent commences Ten years after the date: The other book contains, a successive list of the dates and names of such who have had warrants of survey from the honourable the lieutenant governor, and his present excellency the governor, and the same alphabetically digested in columns, containing the owner's name, date, and quantity of the warrant, quantity surveyed, by whom, where, and when, the date of the return, when and to whom delivered, the book and folio where recorded, and when granted, from April 1743 to September 1752. If said books or either of them are returned into the said office, whole and legible, the person returning them shall have FIFTY POUNDS for each, from GEORGE HUNTER, Surveyor-General of his majesty's lands, Inspector and Comptroller of his majesty's quit-rents.

THE plantation on Charles-Town neck about a quarter of a mile from the said town, belonging formerly to William Smith deceased, and for some years rented by Mr. Wm. Greenland, containing about 240 acres of land, so well known as to need no recommendation, to be sold. Inquire of Messrs. Thomas Elfe, or Frederic Grimke, in Charles-Town, or of Col. John Smith at Stono.
